Microwave Dual Emission

This innovative technology optimises the microwaves distribution to ensure top-quality cooking. The microwaves enter from two different entry points and spread uniformly in all directions within the cavity by bouncing off the inside walls, reaching the food on each side, and cooking it evenly whilst reducing time and energy consumption.

Dual Crisp

Ensures even cooking results and perfectly cooked food just like a traditional oven but with much lesser time whilst also sparing you from turning the food during the cooking process. This is made possible with Ariston's exclusive Dual Crisp technology that combines microwave double emission with Crisp Plate to ensure crispy and tasty food every time.
